

There is no logical reason to limit the services provided by the new medium of satellite radio. Subscribers to these services should not have their rights infringed upon by the greed of big business. I urge the FCC to deny the request of the NAB (petition 04-160) regarding this matter.